Hyperemesis Gravidarum Clinical Guideline

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (or the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, where applicable), please provide:

1. A copy of your current clinical guideline or protocol for the management of nausea and vomiting in pregnancy and hyperemesis gravidarum, including its publication and review dates. If it is published online, a link is sufficient. If you do not have one, please say so.

   A copy of the current clinical guideline for the Management of Nausea and Vomiting of Pregnancy and Hyperemesis Gravidarum is attached. Please refer to the attached document:

   38626 Hyperemesis Gravidarum Clinical Guideline – Attachment

   Please note limited redactions have been made as disclosure of this information would include personal data relating to identifiable individuals. Releasing such information would contravene the data protection principles set out in the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR).

   Accordingly, this information is exempt from disclosure under Section 40(2) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (Personal Information), as its release would be unfair and unlawful.

2. Whether you offer ambulatory (day-case) treatment for hyperemesis gravidarum, such as IV fluids without overnight admission.

   Yes, Belfast Trust offers ambulatory treatment for hyperemesis gravidarum.

Electronic copies by email are fine.
