Critical Care Resources

Calling all non-ICU nurses who attended the Critical Care Skills Training in March 2020 and the current training between August and September 2020.

Many of you said you would value having online critical care resources. We are now inviting you to review and offer feedback on the resources we collaboratively produced with our Queen's University and Trust colleagues.

To access the resources, please forward your personal email to:
una.stledger@belfasttrust.hscni.net &
pauline.hunter@belfasttrust.hscni.net.
