

Write Your First Short Story with Jan Carson

14th April - 5th May

Four Wednesdays
7.30-8.30pm

Delivered via Zoom

Always wanted to have a go at creative writing?
Not too sure where to start?

Over the course of four weeks these interactive online workshops will focus on key elements of short story writing such as character, plot, pacing, editing, dialogue, endings and beginnings.

Each hour long session will involve an element of teaching, plenty of room for chat and an opportunity to take part in specially crafted writing exercises. Jan will be happy to answer any questions and will share from over fifteen years' worth of experience writing and publishing short stories.

The course will be fun, full of practical help and really accessible for absolute beginners. Bring a pen and paper, lots of enthusiasm and a lively imagination. No previous experience required. Open to all BHSCT staff—12 participants max.
