

The FSU has been designed to provide Federation members with support, advice and expertise in the design and delivery of service provision. Eastern FSU functions include central management expertise, planning, accounting, communication, corporate governance, human resources, and the delivery of a range of services* of behalf of Federations. (* This includes GP-run clinics providing enhanced care in Gynaecology, Dermatology, Musculoskeletal medicine and vasectomy service).