We do not record information in this way. There are thousands of people engaged at some level in child and adult services and to try and obtain the information you have requested would involve a significant degree of manually trawling through records, not all of which would be electronic. This information is therefore exempt from release under Section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, which relates to Fees Limit. The limit has been specified as £450 and represents the estimated cost of one or more persons spending 18 hours in determining whether we hold the information, locating, retrieving and extracting the information.
