

6 December 2021

Cord Blood Collection of Stem Cells in Belfast Trust during Covid-19

How many hospitals in Northern Ireland do cord blood collections of stem cells before and after Covid? As I understand this might have been stopped due to Covid.

In Belfast Health and Social Care Trust, the Royal Jubilee Maternity Service has continued with this service unchanged throughout the pandemic.

We have continued to collect cord blood for clinically indicated cases throughout the Covid-19 pandemic.