Please note: This is the current number of incident reports that have been completed on the Trust Incident Management System (Datix) in relation to protests outside the Sexual and Reproductive Health Clinic on College Street, Belfast. There will undoubtedly have been other incidents that were not formally recorded as an Incident since the service began in April 2020. The team have been encouraged to raise an incident on every applicable occasion and this has led to some retrospective incidents being recorded. This explains why the total number of incidents per month has changed since previous FOI responses.
