

17 July 2026

Reproductive Care

1. How long are patients having to wait to have an IUS contraceptive device fitted?

Maximum four weeks.

2. How long are patients having to wait to have an IUD contraceptive device fitted?

Maximum four weeks.

Q1 & Q2 Note: Waiting times reflect the next available appointment identified from Belfast Trust Information system at the time the information was extracted.

3. How long are patients having to wait to have a gynaecology appointment?

Approximately three years.

Q3 Note: Waiting times reflect the next available appointment identified from the relevant Encompass work queue at the time the information was extracted.