Chief Executive releases quality report

Belfast Trust has the vision, leadership and ability to continue to provide the highest level of quality care whilst finding innovative and new solutions to improve outcomes for our patients and service users. This report outlines the improvements we have made in service delivery over the course of a very challenging 12 months. In spite of these continued pressures, we have not wavered from our aim to be recognised as a leader in the provision of safe, effective and compassionate healthcare.
