

Acting Interim Director mental health and Learning disability post

When and where the Acting Interim Director mental health and Learning disability job was trawled/advertised and what the criteria was.

Due to unexpected absence, short term cover was required for the post of Interim Director for Mental Health and Learning Disability. Given the urgent need for continuity of service delivery and the short term nature of the cover required, this was trawled amongst the Directorate's collective leadership team on 1st November 2022 with a closing date of 9th November 2022 via an email inviting expressions of interest.

Due to the short term and urgent need for cover, those working amongst the collective leadership team were eligible to apply via an expression of process with an interview panel constituted in line with the Trusts recruitment and selection procedures.
